it is the 10th of October…

You Know

although it's a special postal day, a postal worker is working, and he isn't on leave, You Know.

can anyone walk across the Vidyasagar Setu today?
although the Panama Canal has never been beneath it, the waves, and the flow still exist, You Know.

does Trans World Airlines (TWA) check one's mental health before a ride?

was there any link among the beginning of the Chinese Revolution, Jinnah's joining the AIML, the beginning of the Congolese National Movement, Fijian Independence, and the UP hanging assembly? it could be explained by the ultra-leftist, or by the political scientist, You Know.

however, today is a very special day, You Know.
Happy Birthday To You, my dearest/nearest enemy!

iff you were still with me, I would ask Richard Clayderman to hold the 'Candle In The Wind' for You.

unlike Samar Sen, I can't do poetry but can do some prose; yet, living like some others in a different timescale, I can only say Eliot:

Time present and time past
Are both perhaps present in time future,
And time future contained in time past.

once again,

Many, Many, M…a…n…y Happy Returns Of The Day!!!
